Killed His Brother.

A coroner's jury in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday acquitted nine-year-old Harry Hass of the death of his brother, Howard, thirteen years of age, whom he stabbed with a poker a week ago, holding that the boy was too young to realize the enormity of his crime. The jury recommended, however, that the Juve the case. In telling his story to the jury yesterday, the boy said:

"I didn't mean to kill my brother, Howard, but he pulled the bed covers off from me, and wouldn't let me clear."

Startling But True. People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a c ld and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have warded t off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and ex-pecially for colds and influenza.
